Rural Workers Movement and Agrarian Reform in Brazil

Friday, April 8th
1:15pm to 3pm
Venue: Wrangel
Biskopsgatan 5, Lund
There will be Fika!

In his recent book, Miguel Carter explores the causes of, consequences of, and contemporary reactions to Brazil's sharply unequal agrarian structure. He focusses on the Landless Rural Workers Movement (MST), Latin America's largest and most prominent social movement, and the ongoing efforts of the MST to confront historical patterns of inequality in the Brazilian countryside. Together with Ana Terra he will present his book and there will be opportunities for discussing MST and social movements in general.
